-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The amendment filed on 6/26/2009 in response to the non-final rejection of 3/25/2009 has been entered and an action on the merits follows:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Krowech et al. Krowech et al teaches a lance device (36) including a frame, guide and pneumatic reciprocating drive means and timing circuit (90) which if desired could be manually operated, in the embodiments of figures 2-4 for example, which can be operated in the manner recited in the instant claims, thereby showing all aspects of the above claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see the response, filed 6/26/2009, with respect to the Woodings et al reference have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of the newly amended claims over Woodings et al has been withdrawn.

Applicant's arguments filed on 6/26/2009 with respect to Krowech et al however have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's argument that Krowech et al does not recite a pneumatic timing circuit is not persuasive. As stated in the above rejection, Krowech et al specifically describes a timer circuit for the operation of the pneumatic drive means described by Krowech et al. The claims do not require that the timing circuit be pneumatically operated, But only that the timing circuit control the operation of the pneumatic valves.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
